HON. GUILFORD SMITH
WEDS MISS ANNA M. PATON
Wealthy and Benevolent South Windham Resident Leaves With Bride for California.

Guilford Smith of South Windham and Miss Anna M. Paton of Windham were married at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Alfred Abbe in Windham, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 29, at 10 o'clock, by Rev. M. R. Plumb of the Windham Congregational church. The wedding was witnessed by only near relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a trip in California, where they will spend the winter.
Mr. Smith is active in many industrial enterprises, is president of the Windham National Bank of Willimantic, of St. Joseph's hospital corporation and is widely known for his liberality and philanthropy.

Inspecting Fire Hazards.
Three out of town men, under the authority of George C. Kilbourn, with Frank B. Fenton of the National Council of Defense, Fire Chief Foley and Chief of Police Killourey are inspecting the city for fire hazards. The local inspection will take about three days.
These three men will inspect property all over the state, inspecting buildings and making reports to the local officials. They will eliminate them if the reports and recommendations are not followed out, the people are charged as delinquent citizens and are made to comply with them.

Patrolmen Change Beats.
Changes in the beats for the patrolmen to take effect December first are as follows: William Ensmore, 3rd beat; Officer Hurley, Jackson Street beat; Officer Currier, the "Up Street" beat; Officer Grady, center beat, and Officer Faulhus, day duty.

WEDDING.
Mizra—House.
Paul Mizra of Norwich and Miss Gladys J. House of this city were married by Rev. Vernon W. Cooke at the home of the bride's parents, Friday morning, Nov. 30, in the U. S. hall. Mr. and Mrs. Mizra left for Providence and Pawtucket on a honeymoon trip and will return to their home for a short time on their return.

Saw Aeroplane at Midnight.
Clinton A. Slater, superintendent of the town farm, claims that Wednesday evening, at midnight, an aeroplane passed over this city. He says that he heard the motor and could plainly see the machine, a monoplane, with rear lights and propeller, at a high rate of speed, probably about 75 miles an hour.

To Address Spiritualists.
Rev. J. Herbert Yoeman will preach at both services at the Spiritualists' church on Gank Street, Friday afternoon. The services will begin at 2 o'clock and at 7 o'clock. He will also preach at the services a week from Sunday.

Soldiers Return to Devens.
About a hundred men from Camp Devens, who were home for Thanksgiving, took the "Soldiers' Special" in this city, Thursday at midnight. A special train, consisting of twelve cars with two engines passed through this city Friday at 10 o'clock in the morning and the noon express carried two special coaches, also for the men returning to Camp Devens.

Five Tons of Sugar Quickly Sold.
The sugar famine was slightly abated, Friday, when five tons of sugar in 100 bags, weighing 100 lbs. each, were received by a local company. This amount was sold in a short time, although only small amounts were allowed to each customer.
There is also another famine here, in the change of this famine affects the whole country.

Game With Alumni Today.
Windham will play the last football game of the season at Recreation Park this (Saturday) afternoon with the Alumni. This game was to be played Tuesday morning but the snow interfered so it was postponed until Saturday afternoon. The Alumni's lineup will be John Riley of Waterbury Tech, Fritz Elander and Harold Gager of Tufts, Earl Tucker, captain of the team, and John H. Smith, who will not play because of an injured knee.

Leave to Enter Service.
Five more local men left on the noon train for New Haven for service in the U. S. army or navy. They are Floyd Willet and John H. Smith, who enter the signal branch of the aviation department of the regular army and they will leave Monday for San Francisco.

Cuticura Healed Itching Eczema on My Little Boy Writes Mr. Jorgenson
"My little boy two years old was suffering with eczema for about a year, his face being almost covered with sore eruptions and pimples. I had him treated and tried many remedies but he failed to get better. The skin was sore and inflamed, and the rash itched badly causing him to scratch the breaking out all the time, and he would carry his hands to his face and scratch. The eruption also caused disfigurement.
"Somebody advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I bought a cake of Cuticura soap and a box of Ointment. They brought relief right away and before the first box of Ointment was used with the soap his face was healed." (Signed) Otto V. Jorgenson, Kingman, Me., Sept. 14, 1916.
Cuticura Soap not only works wonders in all cases of skin troubles but its properties are so mild and delicately combined that it is ideal for every toilet use.
For Free Sample Each by Return Mail address post-card: Cuticura, Dept. K, Boston." Sold everywhere.

COLCHESTER
Children of St. Andrew's Parish, Aided by Friends, Give Splendid Entertainment—Sam Gellert Scores Bull's Eyes at Target Practice—General News.

The entertainment in Grange hall Thursday night by the children was the best the children have ever given. The event was for the benefit of St. Andrew's church and all denominations aided. The boys who were in war uniform and the girls drilled well and showed great skill and fine training. The girls sang well, Morris Hinchey, a 12-year-old dancer and tumbler from Hebron, made a big hit. The greatest feature of the entertainment was the piano playing and singing by Madame Pauline Beck of St. Louis, who was loudly applauded. The fair was a great success.

When the Home Guards held a rifle shoot Wednesday at the old gravel pit Sam Gellert had the honors of hitting the bull's eye several times at a distance of 600 feet.
